JUDGE FIELD ON GRESHAM

Important Statement by a Man Who Knows What He Is Talking About.

PRACTICAL VIEW OF IT.

Gresham's Friends Have Received No Communication from the Judge, Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

DELPHI, Ind., Oct. 26,-Judge E. S. Field, who was a delegate from this congressional district to the Republican national convention in 1888, and who attested his fealty to Judge Gresham by voting for him for nomination to the presidency, being the only Indiana delegate who did so, was seen by your correspondent to-day. In speaking of the Democratic claim that Judge Gresham's alleged change would result in scores of Gresham men voting for Cleveland, Judge Field said:

In the first place, I put no confidence in these reports. I am more confirmed in this view from what was recently published in the papers of southern Indiana as to an interview with the Judge and myself at Terre Haute, which stated that the Judge confirmed the report that he would support Mr. Cleveland, and that I would also support him. The only truth there was in this was the simple fact that we happened to meet there and exchanged greetings. There was no talk whatever about political matters. In the second place, if it be true that Judge Gresham will support Cleveland he has never taken the trouble to inform his best friends of such change, a thing he would most likely do if of such change, a thing he would most likely do if he had in fact experienced a change of heart. I have seen a large number of his old-time friends, denominated four years ago Gresham Republicans, and I have yet to find the first one that attaches any credence to the newspaper reports.

They all emanate from Democratic sources.

If, as a matter of fact, he has changed his convictions, it will have no influence to change his friends. If any wanted to change there is no place in the Democratic party for men that for years have espoused the doctrine of a sound and stable currency and have worked for the success of the great industrial interests of the country, and who have seen as the result of such labors a prosperity without a parallel in any country. Gresham Republicans will stamp the eagle this year, which stands for America against all the outside world, and which stands for a pure, able and dignified administration. I also predict that many Democrats, as well, who have insisted on some form of protection, will not be delivered over to the free-trade lunacy and "wild-cat" currency doctrine of the Democratic platform.

THE BARBECUE FIZZLED.

Big Democratic Demonstration at Elwood to Hear the Hard-Luck Howlers.

ELWOOD, Ind., Oct. 26.—The great Democratic demonstration and celebration of the McBeth lamp-chimney factory of this city was held here to-day. The barbecue feature was given up at the last moment, and the multitude that came expecting to be fed went hungry or bought their dinners at the hotels and restaurants.

A parade occurred at noon, and fully two thousand people were in line, the Hendricks Club, of Indianapolis, heading a delegation from that city numbering about five hundred. The speakers of the day were Hon. James E. Campbell, of Ohio; Hon. W. D. Bynum, Hon. George W. Houck, of Ohio, and Hon. John E. Lamb, of Terre Haute. The speaking began in the grove north of the city at 2 o'clock. Hon. James E. Campbell, and the city at 2 o'clock. Hon. James E. Campbell, and the city at 2 o'clock. Hon. James E. The demonstration to-night exceeded that of to-day, as fully ten thousand people were in the city.

The torchlight procession and fire-works were the main features of the night's programme. Invitations were issued to all to visit the American tin-plate-works, and many availed themselves of the opportunity

The Governor's Big Rally. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

PLYMOUTH, Ind., Oct. 26.-Perhaps the grandest political demonstration ever held in Marshall county was the Republican rally given in honor of Governor Ira J. Chase and General Thomas H. Nelson on Monday. The Governor and General Nelson reviewed the parade from the speakers' stand in the court-house yard. It was pronounced by both as being the best political demonstration they had witnessed during their canvass of the State. The several townships vied with each other in bringing out the largest number of voters and prenting the finest industrial display. The first voters' clubs rode on horseback and filled the air with cheering for Harrison and Reid, Chase and Shockney, Dodge and McCormick. At 2 o'clock Governor Chase was introduced to the largest audience that ever assembled in the court-house park and spoke for two hours, having the closest attention to his clear and terse explanation of the tariff for protection as expressed in the McKinley bill, and his reference to the "wildcat" money of old Democratic times brought fourth rounds of applause. At the close of the Governor's speech General Nelson spoke for an hour. and held the vast audience with his brill-iant oratory. He is a great favorite in this retary of State, addressed an overflow meeting from the band-stand, on Michigan street on the State issues. Bynum's Tariff Wail.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PENDLETON, Ind., Oct. 26.-The first meeting of the Democrats of this locality was held yesterday afternoon and addressed by William Bynum. The Universalist Church was comfortably filled, and for two hours listened to the story of the "awful" condition of the people of this government, and especially did he plead for the poor planters of the South, who must have a local currency in order to be able to lift the debts now resting on them. His speech throughout was a general wail, and at no time did he receive as hearty applause as when he told of the failure of the tin plate-works at Anderson. He argued against home markets, wanted free silver, also State banks, but would not have the national banking system changed. Men who had heard him for the third time this campaign, and in past campaigns, said it was the weakest attempt they ever heard him make, that he is evidently losing con-fidence in himself and is on the run. The Universalist Church was filled to overflowing last night to hear John L. Griffiths speak from the Republican stand-point. Every available space was taken, and it was the crowning meeting of this campaign. He discussed the issues before the people, and when he made an assertion he backed it up with the proof. Mr. Griffiths gave some attention to By-num's speech, and showed the fallacies of the State-bank system. The Republicans of Huntsville are wide awake. Yesterday they raised a pole 125 feet high, and from the top gracefully floats the American flag.

Rensselaer's Big Rally.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RENSSELAER, Ind., Oct. 26.-Yesterday was a big day in the history of the Republicans of Jasper county. It has been Governor's day. Every township in the county was represented by immense delegations, who came as an army, with banners, in gaily decorated vehicles and in companies of cavalry. There were six bands, five glee clubs, four hundred cavalry and 370 vehicles, many of them six-horse teams, in the grand parade. Over five thousand people listened to Governor Chase and Col. A. M. Hardy, of Washington, Ind., in the court-house yard in the afternoon. The Governor made a strong speech, and Col. Hardy captivated the immense audience by making one of the greatest speeches ever heard in Jasper county. Colonel Hardy is a master of oratory, and during his hour-and-a-half speech to-day he commanded the closest attention of the great concourse of people. His tribute to the vehicles, many of them six-horse teams, in concourse of people. His tribute to the President and family in their hour of affliction was beautiful in the extreme, and many an eye was moistened with tears by the tender words of the orator. The courthouse was crowded last night, listening to an eloquent address from Col. I. N. Walker, of Indianapolis.

Hon. Mat. O'Doherty Speaks. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Oct. 26.-Lincoln League Hall was again packed last night long before the speaker arrived, even standing room being taken. The meeting was opened by President Tuley. E. M. C. Hobbs, of Salem, candidate for joint Representative of Washington and Floyd counties; Andrew Fite, of New Albany, candidate for Representative of Floyd county; George H. Hester, candidate for prosecutor; Col. E. A. Maginnis, of New Albany, and Colonel Payne, of Louisville, all made excellent speeches. They were followed by the Hon. Mat. O'Doherty, of Louisville, who was received with tremendous applause. His speech was the best of the evening. Many prominent Democrats were present, and the speaker was given the closest attention throughout. Expressions of condolence and sympathy with the President were made by all of the speakers and audience. Augustus E. Willson, of Louisville, speaks Thursday night, and next Monday night comes William O. Bradley, of Kentucky.

Democratic Outrage at Deerfield.

special to the Indianapolis Journal. WINCHESTER, Ind., Oct. 26.-Eight Republican speakers from this city went to Deerfield, one of the Democratic strongholds of the county, last evening, and addressed a large audience of Republicans and Democrats. Each speaker was limited to ten minutes. During the meeting Democratic intolerance showed itself inside the house by hiseing some of the speakers, while without a spirit of general lawlessness prevailed. During the progress of one of the speeches a large stone was buried through a window, carrying with it not only glass but window-sash, and greatly endangering the safety of those within. At another time a huge fellow flung open the door of the building in which the meeting was held, and, thrusting his head inside, shouted for Jeff Davis. But for the courage and watchfulness of the driver the speakers' conveyance would have been burned. A reward of $50 has been offered for the apprehension and conviction of the man who threw the stone.

Democrats Give Up Pike County.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PETERSBURG, Ind., Oct. 26.-One of the most enthusiastic Republican rallies that have taken place in southern Indiana during the present campaign was held here yesterday. Hon. C. W. Fairbanks, of Indianapolis, addressed a large audience at the court-house in the afternoon, and also one equally as large in the evening. A torch-light procession marched through the principal streets and made a fine showing. The Republican party of Pike county is in good shape and will elect the entire home ticket. This is now practically conceded by leading Democrats, who have been unable to There will be no further attempt, probably, by Democrats to hold another rally here | Special to the Indianapolis Journal. before the election

Speaking at Farmland.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FARMLAND, Ind., Oct. 26.-The operahouse was filled to-night by Republicans and asprinkling of Democrats and thirdparty people to listen to speeches by Rev. Dr. W. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ATLANTA, Ind., Oct. 26.—The articles of incorporation have been filed for the Indiana Tin-plate Manufacturing Company of Atlanta, with a capital stock of $200,000. The incorporators are Enoch Stanford, of Elwood; M. P. Elliott, of Kokomo; E. H. Shirk and M. V. B. Newcomer, of Tipton; A. G. Walton, Z. T. liobbs and Warren Goodykoontz, of Atlanta. The company is organized solely for the purpose of manufacturing American tin-plate. The plant, which will consist of eight mills when completed, will employ not less than five bundred hands. Contracts have been let for the construction of the buildings, and the plant will be in operation as soon as 10 can be finished. Another Vote for Harrison,

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RUSHVILLE, Ind., Oct. 26.-Hon. John B. Elam, of Indianapolis, made a good strong speech to 1,800 people this afternoon, at the Wilson rink. Many were unable to gain admission. The city is decorated with bunting and flags are flying everywhere. The Moscow Republican band furnished good music. Judge A. W. Terney, of New York, spoke to a buge audience at the court-house to-night, making one of the finest addresses ever heard here, pleasing the Republicans and placing some bold facts to the Democrats. Isaac Miller, a life-long Democrat, has come out for Har-rison and protection, and says he does not see how the laboring man who reads can do

Gone to Work in the Wards.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 26 .- The Republicans have been rushing an active campaign in this county and during the closing days will cover every ward in the city with meetings. The first was held tonight in the Eighth ward and was addressed in German by Hon. W. R. Wolfsohn, consul to Baden, followed in English by Dr. George C. Stemen, of this city. A large audience was present. Great preparations are being made for the Lincoln rally here on the second. A special train with the Tippecanoe and soldier clubs leave here at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning to attend the McKinley meeting

Ballard Got the Worst of It.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 26 .- The joint Democratic-Prohibition debate took place last evening at the court-house, between Rev. Jacobs and T. E. Ballard. This is the debate that the Democrats have been so exercised over, and even went so far as to call upon both the gentlemen and request them to back out. But this was of no avail, and Rev. Jacobs informed them that he was a Democrat, but would not support all the ticket. Last night the court-house was partly filled with men of all parties, and when the debate closed the Democrat had received the worst of the Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CONNERSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 26 .- Last night the Morton Club-rooms were crowded by an enthusiastic Republican audience to listen to the eloquent orator, Albert J. Beveridge, of Indianapolis. Mr. Beveridge is a great favorite with Connersvillians, he having spoken here on other occasions. and his hearers all say it was the best speech he ever made in this city. His touching allusion to the sad loss sustained by President Harrison brought tears to the eyes of his hearers.

W. Allison Sweeney the Colored Orator. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

Madison, Ind., Oct. 26.-By far the larg est meeting here during the campaign was addressed, last evening, by W. Allison Sweeney, the eloquent colored orator. His arraignment of colored men for even thinking of voting the Democratic ticket was something not to be forgotten, and met the hearty approbation of every voter, black or white, in the audience. During the evening music was furnished by the white and colored glee clubs of this city.

Trying to Kill Votes.

Special to the Indiapapolis Journal. BARTLE, Ind., Oct. 26 .- In this vicinity Democrats are using every means at their command to cause Republicans to lose their votes. Republican laborers are being offered two and three times the ordinary pay to leave their jobs and move out of the county until after election, and it is said that from four to six votes are thus being killed in each precinct of this township in Washington county.

Afraid of the Republican Speakers. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

DELPHI, Ind., Oct. 26.-Hon. W. S. Kenworthy, of Iowa, was greeted here last night by a packed Republican house. He made many telling points against the freetrade, English Democracy, which created an evident uneasiness among the Democratic bosses, who are making every effort to induce the rank and file of the bourbon party to remain away from Republican MACEDONIA, Ind., Oct. 26 .- O. N. Crapor and John F. Meredith discussed the political issues of the day in a telling manner here Monday evening. Each speaker spoke about one hour and made many good points. The Muncie quartet also furnished some rousing campaign songs. W. W. Ross explained the method of voting and stamping the ballots.

Putting on More Steam. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 26.- The campaign is beginning to get hotter in this vicinity. More hard work will be done in this county during the remaining two weeks than during any four weeks of a previous campaign. Capt. John Worrell, candidate for Congress, has made more than seventy speeches, and will make two a day from now on.

ELKHART, Ind., Oct. 26.—Governor Mellette, of South Dakota, addressed the Republicans of this city last night, attracting a large audience. The Virginia Orator at Monticello, Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MONTICELLO, Ind., Oct. 26,-Hon. Patrick McCall, of Virginia, addressed an appreciative audience at Fraser's Hall last night. The meeting was presided over by Hon. W. H. Hamel, who introduced the speaker. Mr. McCall commanded the closest attention and was frequently greeted with ap-plause as he delivered his argument.

Poured Hot Shot Into Democrats.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. VALPARAISO, Ind., Oct. 26.-Hon. C. W. Wollfisohn, of New York, addressed a good audience of Germans, at the opera-house, last night. Mr. Wollfsohn is a fluent speaker. He explained the educational law in Illinois and Wisconsin, and poured hot shot into the Democratic policy of free trade and "wild-cat" money.

TRAGIC END OF A QUARREL

Christian Schakel Shot, Probably Fatally, by a Fellow-Employe Yesterday.

Cobier, Who Fired the Shot, Surrenders Himself-His Story of the Affair-Was Afraid of Being Killed.

Between 1 and 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon William Cobler, a car-repairer in the employ of the Big Four Railroad Company, walked into the police station and surrendered himself to the authorities, saying that he had shot Christian Schakel in the Big Four yards at Leota street. Turnkey Taffe slated the man for assault and battery with intent to kill, and he is now held upon that charge.

Cobler says that on Tuesday he was left in charge of the men at work in the yards, Harris, the foreman, being absent at the scene of a wreck on the road. During the day he found Christ. Schakel and a young man named Rosemeyer in a hay car drinking whisky. Upon his return yesterday Harris heard of the fact that the two men had been drinking while on duty, and called Cobler into the office and asked him about it, and upon his admitting that he had seen the two men drinking while on duty, they were called into the office and promptly discharged. This took place immediately after dinner Tuesday. During the afternoon Schakel hung around the yards swearing that he would "get" Cobler for having him discharged. Cobier went about his work, and about So'clock, while he was under a car at work repairing a truck, Schakel came upon him and attempted to hit him with a hammer, but was prevented from doing so by a man named Cook who was working with Cobler.

At about 5 o'clock Cobler quit work, fearing that if he worked longer Schakel might attempt to injure him while returning home after dark. Yesterday morning, upon going to work, he saw Schakel again hanging about the yards, and went to the foreman, Mr. Harris, and asked if he would be protected from an attack by the man if he went to work. Harris told him that he would most assuredly be protected, and started to order Schakel out of the yards, but the latter evaded him. Cobler says that several persons had told him to be on his guard, that Schakel was a bad man, and would undoubtedly carry out his threats to kill him, made at the time of the attack with the hammer. Immediately after the whistle blew yesterday afternoon for the men to go to work, Cobler saw Schakel coming toward the car upon which he was working and stepped to the other side to avoid him, whereupon Schakel also went to the other side and Cobler returned. Schakel, still following him, came towards where he was standing, and dropped both hands into the pockets of his coat, applying a vile epithet to Cobler, and swearing that he would kill him. Cobler then drew a revolver from his pocket, and before Schakel was aware of what what was coming fired. The ball took effect in the abdemen, and a little to the left side of the body. Immediately after the shooting Cobier left, and going straight to the police station surrendered himself before the officers knew anything of the shooting. Flanner & Buchanan's ambulance was called to the scene and removed Schakel to the City Hospital. The physicians say that it is impossible to tell what the effect of the wound may be, but it will, in all probability, result fatally. If the intestines are injured, and it is exceedingly doubtful if they could escape injury, they say he will die. Considering the nature of the wound, however, he bore up well, and all that could be done was to await developments and let time tell whether or not the intestines had been hurt.

The revolver with which the shooting was done was an ordinary 38-caliber, double-action weapon. In answer to a question as to whether he was in the habit of going armed, Cobler answered that he was not; that he had only carried a revolver after being warned to be on his Cobler told a straightforward story without hesitation, and answered all questions promptly, but was very much agitated. and restrained with difficulty from bursting into tears. His statement regarding the shooting is coroberated by Mr. Harris and persons who saw the shooting. Cobler is a married man, with a wife and four children living. Only two of the children are living at home; one of them, a son, is employed with his father by the Big Four, and tried to induce his father not to work yesterday on account of Schakel being present in the yards. Schakel is also married, and resided with his wife and family at No. 145 High street. Cobler has been employed at the shops about three months, and is known as a steady and industrious worker. The meeting between the prisoner and his wife at the station-house after he had surrendered himself was very touching. Both burst into tears and hugged one another as if afraid to be separated again. Davis & Martz have been employed to defend Cobler and will make an effort to have him released upon the preliminary hearing.

FAMILY OF FOUR BURNED.

Father, Mother and Two Little Boys Perish

by Fire at Cleveland. CLEVELAND, Oct. 26,-A fatal fire occurred about 1:30 o'clock this morning in a two-story frame building at the corner of Central avenue and Harriet street, near the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad crossing, an entire family, consisting of a father, mother and two little boys, perishing. The building was a residence and storerooms combined. In half of the lower portion was a saloon owned by James Shannon and John McGinty. Shannon and his family lived in the upper section of the perished. The cause of the fire could not be ascertained, but it was believed to have originated in the saloon. The family, it is said, used the large front room as a sleeping apart-ment. They were all probably overcome by smoke before the situation was realized. The front half of the building was destroyed, and the four bodies were buried in the burned embers. Shannon was thirty-six years old, and his wife thirty-two. The eldest boy, James, was six years old, and John, the youngest, four years. The search for the bodies was begun by the firemen as soon as the debris could be sufficiently cooled. That of one of the boys was first recovered. It was unrecognizable, but it was believed to be that of the oldest. It had the appearance of being roasted. The head resembled a large black ball. The flesh had not dropped from the bones. The other bodies were later dug from the debris, and were in about the same condition.
